

THE RUN SHEET

Ninety minutes. One volunteer can run it.

A parent night built around a 45-minute talk you press play on. No speaker to book. The table time is where it lands — protect those twenty minutes above everything else.

ROLES — FOUR PEOPLE, NONE OF THEM THE PASTOR

Host	Reads the italic lines. Keeps the clock. Not a teacher tonight.
Tech	Video with sound tested at T-60. Slides loaded. QR slide last.
Table hosts	One per two tables. Holds the card deck. Keeps phones off the table.
Greeter	Coffee, name tags by kids' ages, seats couples together.

SUPPLIES

- ☐ Round tables of 6–8, couples seated together
- ☐ One table-card deck per table (7 cards)
- ☐ Handoff card per family, QR facing up
- ☐ Name tags: parent name + kids' ages
- ☐ Coffee. Dessert. Childcare running elsewhere.
- ☐ A basket at the door — phones go in on the way to tables

BEFORE DOORS

T-60	Tech check. Play the first two minutes of the talk at room volume. Check the QR slide scans from the back row. Load the announcement slide.	TECH
T-30	Tables set. Card deck face-down in the center, card 0 on top. Handoff cards at each seat. Table hosts briefed: read the host card, nothing else.	TABLE HOSTS
T-15	Doors. Coffee. Basket. Greeter points at the basket and smiles: "Phones in here — you'll want your hands free." Name tags with kids' ages so tables sort themselves.	GREETER

Welcome. Why tonight.

HOST

Host stands. Two minutes, no slides.

"Every parent in this room has had the same fight about the same rectangle. Tonight nobody's going to tell you you're doing it wrong. We're going to watch something together, then talk to each other — not to a stranger. Phones are in the basket. Tonight's for the people at your table."

0:05

Set up the talk. One sentence.

HOST

"Forty-five minutes on phones, adolescence, and what we're actually up against. Don't take notes. Notice what makes you exhale."

0:07

The Talk — 45 minutes.

TECH

Lights down, sound up. Nobody speaks over it. Chapter marks for the tech booth — fill in from the video:

__:_ The milestone nobody trained for	__:_ What it's doing to sleep, friendship, identity
__:_ What changed after 2010	__:_ What parents are up against — and aren't
__:_ What the phone is doing to attention	__:_ The way through: a license, not a leash

0:52

Table time — 20 minutes.

TABLE HOSTS

Lights up. Table hosts flip card 0 and read it aloud. Six cards, roughly three minutes each. Host gives a two-minute warning, not a speech.

"Card zero is the rules. Then go in order. Everyone answers every card — that's the only rule that matters."

1:12

Card six, out loud.

HOST

Host asks each table to pick one person to say their "one thing this week" to the whole room. Thirty seconds a table. No commentary.

1:18

The handoff.

HOST • TECH

QR slide up. Handoff cards in hand.

"The talk was the why. Phone License is the how — six weeks, you and your kid, ends with a signed agreement and a real license. Our church already covered it. Scan before you stand up; it takes forty seconds. Your table host can help."

Wait the full two minutes. Watch for the phones coming out of the basket.

1:25

Close. A blessing, not a wrap-up.

HOST

"You're not behind. You're not alone in this — look around the room. On
